Reflections

2019 - 2020

Reflections

Overall Reflection

The Music Teacher Education program in the FAMU College of Education is doing well. We have averaged 25-30 incoming Pre-Music Teacher Education Majors a year for the past four years and have been graduating 1-2 students per semester since the Fall 2013 semester. As of the Fall 2019-2020 Semester, we have 1 full time Music Teacher Education Faculty members. The undergraduate Music Teacher Education program also was not absorbed under the Teach Out program; meaning that Music Teacher Education stills offers its own stand along degree and student degrees will not be listed as "Secondary Education" majors. The Music Teacher Education Course Curriculum Guides were updated Fall 2018. By updating the Music Education curriculum and sequence of courses, we hope to anticipate an improved passage rate on all portions of the Florida Teachers Certification Examination. Music Teacher Education graduated two students in the Fall 2019 semester. Both students have returned to their home state of Georgia respectively, and are employed as certified music education teachers.
